COMPANY FOR LUNCH

HE house where Bob and Jack | idea. thought that a most convenient place for a summer home for, you see, when climb trees, there the trees were, right by the front door of their home. And races or anything like that, there was the flat, beautiful meadow, right at do on the meadow that they never even thought of doing when they moved into the house. They could watch the aeroplanes sail by. Now when the boys and their parents moved into this particular house, they didn't know that one of the U. S. aviation fields was only about ten miles seroplanes go by, two and three and sometimes ten a day, they began to wonder and to inquire. And then they found that those planes they saw were mail planes and practice planes and all sorts of planes from the field not so

Bob and Jack used to sit on the fence at the edge of the meadow and watch and wish that the planes would fly close enough and low enough for them to signal the men aboard-but the planes never did. Always they by so far over head that they looked like beautiful big birds-only the noise they made was a lot more than the noise any bird makes in flying, that was sure!

"You boys stay out in that meadow laughed their mother one whether it would work. day. "that I think I'll give you your Instead of telling, he bagan to make very much, for Bob believed in doing an airship of his own, from a pattern the time!" Of course, she meant it he got in a book. He whittled the as a joke, but her words gave Bob an wooden parts, and glued the paper

Look! Jack! Look! It's Coming Down

He thought and thought and finally ship shape according to directions.

his idea long enough to know just, thought it was, and he helped all

One fine day the airship was finished boy friends near by, all went out to papers. the edge of the meadow to see if it Wrap each prune in a small piece shore.

waves-

Just like a dream come true ships went salling by, fast, oh, so very apend the summer was on the edge of a beautiful big woods and decided he wouldn't tell anybody, not and a wide meadow. The boys even Jack, till he had thought about ling work. Even the boys father meadow. Bob looked and looked, and "Never mind," he said comforts. sure enough, he could actually see the man driving the plane, actually see do it I know."

him looking over the edge! "Could So the next him looking over the edge! "Could So the next morning he worked at the man see his own airship?" Bob his papers till the plane went by, and

And from that minute, the big idea grew and grew till it just had to come to anybody what he was trying to do. true, Bob thought. So the very next orning he set to work.

He gathered a lot of old newspaper he went alone, but Jack followed and sounded in the distance. Bob let him stay though he didn't explain a bit what he was doing and and getting louder and nearer every Jack, for the life of him, couldn't minute. make head nor tail of the funny busi-of air stirring. "Just perfect!" Bob declared happily, the Jack confessed citedly. that he liked a breeze better.

Keeping his eye on the sky all the while. Bob began to spread out the like plane that for days had passed newspapers he had brought. One long over the meadow, was circling lower line, then a funny curved line-such a and lower right over their own crazy way to act Jack thought when meadow! The boys could hardly behe had that lovely new airship he lieve their eyes. might be fiving.

What you going to make now?" had to spread 'em all out to dry? They machine. And still it came lower.

"They aren't, silly," laughed Bob. excitedly, "though wetting them would be a good idea for a windy day. This be a good idea for a windy day, isn't work and it isn't play, it's an in-called to the boys. "Your father home?" he asked.

Bob would let him-which wasn't so That puzzled little Jack more than pleasanter game for a hot day so he "Ask him if he'll help me a bit." added stay." and the family and the two or three industrious brother all alone with his don't believe I'll have to go clear back driver. "I'd been thinking I got to ac-"That's all right," said Bob to him-would. The day was perfect-wind spread out papers. Now I'll start the of the house to see if they were need meadow." next. And if I don't get it all done ed. The slight repair was easily made to make bad currents of air or tugging today maybe he'll remember today and the driver got ready to start again.

higher as fast as Bob could let out ing papers in long, queer looking lines the string she went, till the little ship on that smooth meadow.

seemed like a bird just as the big He was still hard at it when the ones had. Bob was very proud. whirr of a motor told him that an whire of a motor told him that an While the toy airship was high in aeroplane was coming. He stopped the air, one of the really-truly air- his work and strained his eyes to see the pilot, but though he looked hard

"Never mind," he said comfortably "It may take several days, "but I can the next and the next and still nothing happened and still he wouldn't explain

The morning of the fourth day he finished his paper work early and was getting ready to fly the airship kite and went out into the meadow. First for Jack when the aeroplane motor

Not so far away this time it was.

"Kinda scares me, it does, when comes so near," said little Jack, and The day was hot and not a breath he stood close to his bigger brother, "It's a coming!" exclaimed Bob, ex-"Look! Jack! Look! It's coming down!"

And sure enough! The great bird-

Lower. Lower. Still lower. They could see the lettering: they could see asked Jack finally, when he grew more the patches on the wings; the man in and more puzzled." did mother say you the pit and every little part of the down-till it came to a stop on the ground in the middle of their very own meadow.

The driver got out of the plane and

"Yes." replied Bob and he was so ever and he decided he could find a excited he could hardly say the word. how these two boys would like you to been asking him to come." went up to the sand pile and left his the driver. "I need some help and I to the school.'

would really fly as Bob promised it self approvingly as he looked at the and he and mother came hurrying out "You're not going off right at lunch you mean? And then he worked away harder time without a bite, are you?" asked

GARDEN HINTS

REATHES there the man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath

I want to do whate'er I can To banish all the ills of man? We hope not many such exist; That none the impulse will resist To swat the Fly-that insect

That's always hovering round our

See how, just come from dirty stable.

He dances on our breakfast table!

"Well I don't care if I do." said the mother. cept your invitation and to tell the it alone," said the aviator. "Every The boys' father heard the talking truth, madam, that's partly why I day he has had letters spread out on stopped right here in this good the grass of the meadow. The first Bob flushed and said. "my invita-

"But I don't understand," said his day or two I didn't think much of it, "My invitation?" asked Mrs. Rey- but as it went on I was sure he meant nolds much puzzled, "before-now do it for me. The letters spelled "Please stop here for lunch. And so I did."

And that's how it happened that

THE JUDIOR GOOK

This time of year it is hard to think up new things for the school lunch.

When in doubt, try this recipe. Wash two dozen fine prunes in three waters.

Put in an earthen bowl and cover Cover tightly with a plate and let stand 24 hours. By this time all the water should be soaked up and the prunes should be plump and tasty. Put in a wire colander to drain, Cut open each prune and remov-

Mix two tablespoonsful of chopped outs with one-half cupful of cottage cheese. Add enough cream or cooked salad dressing to make a stiff paste. Stuff the prunes with this mixture. being sure that they are made pretty shaped and plump. If desired these prunes may then he As a nice sandy shore by the sea.

the lunch box for a dessert.

rolled in sugar, but they are every bit as good without.

enough to take it up, but not enough at the string. A little help from his when I finish the rest tomorrow.' of oiled paper and put four or five in friends, a couple of bad starts and away the airship flew! Higher and than ever at the funny job of spread- Bob's mother hospitably. "You know tion, he means mother. Each day I've Bob had such fine company for lunch.

parts and made everything just in cried out. What do you think came to view? "And if you would like a nice ride, For there's nothing so sure to make a A dear little rider and horse from the Come along quick, hop on and you And each had a gift for small Buddy Ride safely and fine at my side."

DREAM

as he wandered along by the "O, I am a Merboy," the sea child And out in the ocean in a gay ring, Some Mermaids were dancing in Boy. Taken from far 'neath the sea.

From the people under the sea?

Jewels and gold, mercy me!

Did ever a child have such marvelous Over the tossing billows, gifts.

Star flowers and coral, mosses and fern, Then home rode they and back to the shore.

And I must confess that Buddy awoke, To find himself on his pillows!

All About July

Happy as ever could be,

child glad,

Dear Little Buddy

beach.

T is named for the Roman Emperor. Julius Caesar, who in rethirty-one days, where before that July also typines the power of Caesar strongest. Long, long ago July was when the hay harvest is gathered in. Still another peoples called this month "Maed-monath" because it is the season when the meads begin to bloom.

suggest the strength of this month.

the fifth month of the year and was an attachment you will hold by it. had better warn your friends to be choose wisely the things to make your you set out to do. home life more comfortable. Your The birthstone for July is the ruby. likes and dislikes will be formed hasti-which stands for charity, dignity and

Other things than its name-July-1 will have literary tastes.

Should your birthday come in the making the calendar gave July The zodiacal sign is Leo, which means last half of the month it is thought time it had been reduced to thirty. It is thought that if your birthday have lots of wit and be able to tell for in this month the sun is the falls between the first and the six- an entertaining and amusing story. teenth of July you will be very af- If you follow your emotions you will the fifth month of the year and was fectionate, and having once formed be led to extremes of conduct, and you is changed now that the month has You will sympathize with others read- ware of your temper for it will be been moved back to seventh place ily and you will share their joys and decidedly stormy. You will not be and we never even remember that it sorrows equally with them. You will overly fond of studying but you will had any name other than July. The be emotional and you will have a observe carefully. You will be strong old Anglo-Saxons called the month strong love of nature. You will be and well built and you will have it in "Hey-monath" because it is the time thrifty and industrious and you will your power to accomplish whatever ly and they will be very strong. You divine power. The flower for the

THE CONCEALED ORCHESTRA

2. Great singers, undoubtedly, must

3. Florence, will you telephone

4. Traveling in foreign lands aids

These grapes are spientific.
 Alfred disappeared after dinner.

FOUR LETTER SQUARES

a room of confinement

found in the tree tops

ANSWERS

THE CONCEALED ORCHESTRA-1

HOW OLD IS BOB!-Seven Fold

forward along A-A and backward along what the clock does a piece of money

a Japanese flower

an ugly giant a shady valley

a girl's name

a thought a vegetable paradise orderly

5. Harp. 6. Fife,

ence these days Dora.

protect their throats.

education.

month is the water-lily which symbolizes purity of heart. An old verse for Then they'll be exempt and free From love's doubt and anxiety." A weather prophecy for July says:

The glowing ruby shall adorn Those who in July are born;

"If the first of July it be rainy weather 'Twill rain more or less for four weeks together."

July is a month of revolutions and battles. It is indeed a month of strength and power: Nations have been born and monarchles dethroned in this month, the month of heat and struggle-July. Our own United States shook off the yoke of English power and rose a free nation on the fourth of July. The French peasants rebelled against a cruel and oppressive government on the fourteenth of The Battle of Gettysburg in the Civil War was fought on the first of July. General Washington took command of the United States Army on the third of July. The Reign of Ter-ror in France ended on the twenty-A letter taken from each word will reveal in each sentence a musical in-1. Housekeeping requires experi-

What other things do you know that happened in this month of mid-sum

SUMMER

H, Summer is a dandy time, For after school is done,

And time to eat three meals; In Summer time there's always time To do just as one feels. Guitar. 2. Trumpet. 3. Flute. 4. Violin.

For everything in Summer time, From dawn to set of sun,

FUN

Comes one grand long vacation Ten weeks of play and fun.

There's time to wade and time to swim Out in the lake so blue, And time to play upon the sand, Which I love best to do.

There's walking time, and resting time

There's time to read and time to sew, Or pay a social call; Oh. dear, I wish time would stand still And never move to Fall.

Is just as nice as nice can be, For Summer time is Fun-

TOYS AND USEFUL ARTICLES THAT IT BOY CAN MAKE. BY FRANK I. SOLAR

SCOUT FIREMAKING SET. AID IN HERE PLACE NAIL THROW THONG AT E. LOOSEN OR TIGHTEN THONG BY CHANGE CAN BE MADE VE BY CHANGIM BY FRAVING PIECE POSITION OF NAIL TWINE STRONG TACK - 15 RAD DAK : 0

BY DOTTED LINES MAKE OF DAK-ROUND ALL EDGES THOME & x 40

VERY BOY is familiar with the pieces of broken window glass, and to a troop.

a first class scout degree is to be able and free from slivers. Rub the bow to start a fire without matches. There with linseed or other oil so if you The notches are cut with a saw. are many different devices used. Some are caught out in the rain with it, the piece of manilla rope or twine. Other of them resemble the old indian meth-ods and require a great deal of phy-thong can be bought at almost any be tried. sical strength and patience, but with hardware or sporting goods store. It To start a fire make some shavings the equipment shown in the accompanying drawing after a little practice, a fire can be started very quickly.

To start a fire make some snatural from a dry plece of stick. Collect some dry grass and twigs. Place the through the leather so it cannot slip board A on the ground and below one Outfits made from these plans have back through the hole. won several contests for speed in set-the bow B. For this get a piece of below the surface at the center. This the drill in the hole, the block D held screw acts as a bearing against which on the piece the pattern given on the the head of the round head screw in other end of the drill. Grasp the bow detailed drawing of the bow. Bore a the end of the drill C is held. hole to form the round part of the cutout just ahead of the hand as this material will clie to be made of cypress hold part A with which ever knee is as this material will start the tinder most convenient and saw with the hold. With a coping, keyhole, or more readily than other wood. It bow, causing the drill to revolve back turning saw cut to line. Next make can be made perfectly round left and forth rapidly. As soon as the

The block D is also made of oak, tinder. Wind the thong on the bow The drawing shows the corners cham- about the drill as shown in the as-Begin work on the outfit by making fered, and a screw driven about 2-16" screw acts as a bearing against which in the left hand on the screw, in the Part A, the tinder board is made of Boy Scouts and very few boys do then smoothing with fine sandpaper. cypress. Lay out the notches as not at one time or other belong Spend plenty of time scraping and shown in the drawing and before cutsanding, so the handle will be nicely ting bore 1/4" hole 1/4" deep. The holes One of the requirements to obtain rounded and all parts perfectly smooth are to receive the end of the drill-of the notches place a bunch of the holes for the leather or buckskin square or have the corners planed off.

F. 1813

thong. These holes are bored with a One end is nicely rounded and the board. Dick up the tinder and blow other has a screw driven half way a steadily on it, or swing it, holding in both hands till it begins to flame.

HOW OLD

Puzzle Corner

HOW OLD IS BOB?